Indie Music Channel's 2014 Best Female Jazz Artist, Dena Taylor, has teamed up with GRAMMY® Award Winners Floyd Domino, Redd Volkaert and Ernie Durawa to deliver what Bree Noble of Women of Substance Radio says is "a masterful culmination of Dena's career as a vocalist and a producer, and definitely my favorite .."

This CD taps into Dena's passion for the sophisticated lyrics and music of the American Songbook and includes some unexpected treats in homage to her country roots.
